King's Daughter Nears the World's Mark at Belmont.

Ornament Mare Clips Off Mile in 1:37 4-5 and Establishes Brandnew Mark for the Meeting in Feature Event of the Day's Card. Nimbus Tries Hard to Keep Up.

New York, Oct. 7.-King's Daughter, carrying 117 pounds, came within twofifths of a second of equaling the world's record of 1:37 2-5 for a mile over a track with a turn at Belmont Park to-day. King's Daughter won the handicap at the above distance in a gallop, and had she been extended it is probable that a new record would have been hung up. From the moment the barrier was raised the Ornament mare made the pace, and so fast was it that she had all of her competitors dizzy, except Nimbus, when she reached the head of the stretch. Nimbus responded gamely to Butwell's drive, but he never could get near the Ornament mare, who swung home on the bit with five lengths to spare in 1:37 4-5, the fastest time of the meeting.

Hughey Jennings.

The success of the Tigers is due principally to Manager Hughey goes straight to the bottom, picking up one man after another who is quite as Jennings' ability to manage a club, and his tact in preserving harmony among the players.

He took hold of the Tigers in 1907 and made a championship team of it. He repeated in 1908. During the three years he has been connected with the club he has not played himself, his last active work on the field being with Baltimore in 1906.

In his prime, Jennings was a wonderful player, as his appended

FIRST GAME FOR WORLD'S PENNANT

of the players in the outfield, for where one team excels in one position the other excels in another; that the catchers of the Detroit team will not be up to the standard of Gibson, of Pittsburg, who will probably be asked to do the bulk of the work for the National League club, and it he is injured Pittsburg will have its hands full; that one man has just as good right as another to guess what the pitchers will do, and that the man who can make the luckiest guess will win his wager of a box of cigars if he makes one. Better Than Last Year.

A New York critic believes that the pitchers of the Detroit team are in better condition to begin this series than they have been in other contests for the werld's championship. For that reason they may make Pittsburg work harder; but after watching with much interest the work of the Pittsburg players and the Detroit players all the season, it looks like a Pittsburg vietory, by a margin somewhat closer, perhaps, than that of Chicago last year.

What Mr. Clarke will be compelled to ontend against, more than anything else, is the stolidity of some of the players. It isn't their expertness which may be at fault; it's the necessity to keep impressed on their minds that they must not rest on the second game, if they happen to win the first. Jennings has a mercurial lot under him whom he can raise from despondency to determination by a few cheerful whoops on the base lines when they are begin-ning to get blue. The Detroit baseball "fans" and some of the critics have reviewed the possibilities prior to the beginning of the series and have come to the conclusion that if Detroit wins it must be for the reason that "Ty" Cobb shall offset anything which is done by "Hans" Wagner.

That's piffle. Any Detroit "fan" who carries that theory around with him would be better off with a bull terrier and a parrot.

Not a One-man Team. The Pittsburg team is not "Hans" Wager. It's a tough, hard-muscled, hardbatting outfit that begins at the top with sawed-off third baseman, who has the knack of getting on first even if he isn't as powerful a hitter as the others, and likely to break up the game as Wagner and that's why Pittsburg has been wining games this year in the National

It is true that Wagner has done his share, but if the history of the Pirates for 1909 is carefully reviewed, it will be found that Clarke made his two bagger which sent in two runs, or Leach hit to the fence in center field for three bases, or Miller with a stinging double to left field tied the score, or Gibson hit one somewhere over the left fielder's head, or that Abstein poked the ball for a triple between right and center, or occasionally that Wilson shot a swift liner between short and third which put the needed run over the plate, to say nothing about that infant shortstop.

That's where Pittsburg is strong. It is a "break 'em up team" all along the line, and doesn't have to get a certain com-bination working and then have Cobb and Crawford come along and send everybody home rejoicing. If it can't win on that basis, Detroit will be the next team to fly a world's championship pennant. Some opinions of others are added as to premacy, and they will surely be read

What Evers Says. This is "Johnny" Evers' idea. He says: "It is my belief that Detroit ought to be an even-money favorite for the world's championship. I don't like to express an furlous opinion, for some people might think I kingship kingship Louise Wells..... us this year. I'm not. I know the Pirates are a grand team, and they beat us fair and square, but I think this is Detroit's

"The principal reason I have for my belief is that Detroit, on the whole, has a better pitching staff. I think Mullin and Donovan will win their first games, and you know how much confidence and ad-vantage it would give the Tigers to take Col. Ashmead "Pittsburg has the better of it behind the bat, for Gibson is one of the greatest date and catchers in the game, but I doubt that even he will be able to stop the Tigers on Creps Beckha the bases. The Pirates are not as fast a base-running team as the Tigers, and I think the advantage here for Jennings' men will be a telling one.

"The Tigers are stronger than when we beat them, from all I hear. The infield has been improved, and that was their ng worker, and close observer at all times. He is weakness. We beat them because of our pitchers and because of Kling's throwing. I don't think the Pittsburg pitchers will be able to do as well, though they have a good pitching staff there."

SPORTING SIDELIGHTS By BILL BAILEY.

Looks like a big night to-night in Pittsburg. Oh, you Tigers! we're all pulling

Several of the papers have started base ball grievances. This is no time for petty strife. We need all of that stuff to tide us over the winter.

Take it from me that Pittsburg is so obsessed in baseball this week that it has forgotten all its domestic troubles.

parnstorming tour to the Coast. Cantillon's words to Johnson were: "The best you'll get is the worst of it, for when you'll get is the worst of it, for when they whack up your share will be about $200 less than all hands predicted.

getting less dangerous to the players every year, there is a decided falling off annually in the number of teams willing to play two games a week in the early season. Only five games were played Wednesday, as against twice that many one year ago. It seems to be getting recognized more and more that there is little value in meeting opponents who as a rule, are inferior to the scrub teams, and the 'varsities realize that their limited time may be spent to much better advantage in the regular drill.

PIRATES VS. TIGERS—BATTING FACTS.

Who'll do the better hitting in the world's championship games, the Pittsburgs or the Detroits? That question is really the most important of the several propositions that arise in trying to get a line on the teams in the coming series. According to unofficial figures, the Tigers are the better batsmen, as shown by the dope:

Games. AB. Pittsburg 148 4,563 678 1,305 212 Detroit 155 5,026 655 1,316 285 230 .262

Despite the Tigers' superior hitting and their big margin in stolen bases, they failed to score as many runs as the Pirates. This may be explained by the fact that nearly all the real hitting done by the Detroits was accomplished by two men-Cobb and Crawford-while the Pirates' entire line-up takes a hand in the run-getting. It must also be rememhered that the pitching in the National League, as a whole, is better than that of the American League.

Against Western Maryland. The George Washington 'varsity football team lined up yesterday afternoon Boston, Oct. 7.—The Red Sox, eighteen players, left for New York this afternoon on the 4 o'clock train. To morning the scrubs. Crafts was in the practice and PITTSBURG VS. DETROIT oon on the 4 o'clock train. To-morrow strengthened the back field wonderfully. afternoon they will line up against the Giants in the first game of a post-season back with Crafts. Fowler, the big Y. M. The Red Sox players were confident C. A. athlete, was tried at right guard that they would win the honors and they were spurred on by a telegram from Washington's hope for quarter back, President Johnson, of the American guided the team in great shape and had League, wishing them good luck against the scrubs going with his snap and speed. To-morrow afternoon the team plays Western Maryland at the National

League Park

TECH HAS VETERAN TEAM

Nine Experienced Football Men Report to Coach.

Will Tackle Episcopal High School at Alexandria To-morrow Afternoon.

Technical High School is opening its favorable circumstances. A squad of 97 twenty-five has reported and there is much rivalry for positions on the first los team. Another advantage of the team FIFTH RACE-Three-year-olds and upward; sell- is that there are nine of last years players on whom to rely. With these veterans and the usual caliber of the Tech teams, they are picked to win the high

Of the old men, Capt. McCarthy, Spransy. Bullough, and Tew look good for positions on the line. Farmer, the speedy little end of last year, is again in the game, trying for quarter back.

Macon, Spencer, and Kelly, last year's quarter, are veteran candidates for the backfield. Faulkner, the stocky guard, is out of the game with a twisted knee, and will be unable to play for the rest of the season. Morris and Sinclair, both new men, are practicing with the team, but no regular line-up will be used until the opening of the high school series, in their game with Eastern, on Friday, October 15. This team caused a sensa-tion last Wednesday by tying the Gallaudet Reserves. Tech goes against the Episcopal High School team at Alexandria, and the long-standing rivalry between these two teams will guarantee an interesting game.

CENTRAL CANCELS GAME.

Georgetown Preps Have Trouble Filling Up Schedule.

Following the canceling of a game by the Holy Name team, which was to have been played last Tuesday, comes the announcement that the Central High boys will not be able to play the Georgetown Preps on Saturday. Inability to get in shape in the short time they have been practicing is given as the reason for not being able to play.

The hilltop lads are much discouraged at not being able to get more games. Next Tuesday they clash with Western for the second time, and the game should be interesting. A game with Episcopal High will be played in two weeks, and by that date Capt. Kerwin will be able to get in the line-up. Speed Dahill, end of last year's prep aggregation and a star track man, has returned to school, and is out playing the quarter position, left vacant since Milburn was injured a week Manager Langmuir announces that a game has been arranged with the Fredericksburg eleven, which contest will be played on the Virginians' grounds.

Washington Fans Ready. To-day is the day. At 2 o'clock this afternoon on the field at Pittsburg, the champion Detroits will clash with the Pirates in the third struggle Jennings' nine has made for a world's series honor. At the Columbia Theater the Rodier Elec tric Scoreboard will show the games, and operation say that it is a wonderfully realistic thing. There is no play in a ball game that the board cannot deplet. A special wire has been run from the ball field at Pittsburg to the stage of the Columbia Theater. The accommoda-tions at the Columbia appeal to the ladies as well as to the men who are followers of the game. FIRST GAME TO-DAY REPRODUCED AT
